

THE GALIPATIA GOBBLER

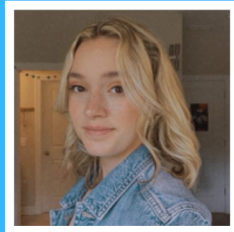

APRIL 14,
2024

IF YOU NEED
TO MOVE OUT
LATE FILL OUT
FORM ON STAR
REZ BY 4/26
AT 5PM

Kaitlyn Green, Editor

Morgan Peterson,
Writer

Why You Should Work for VT

Dining By Morgan Peterson

Looking for a way to make some extra money next semester? I highly recommend working for VT Dining. Unlike other work opportunities in the Blacksburg area, VT Dining works with your student schedule, has flexible hours, tradeable shifts, awesome managers, and a free meal for every qualifying shift you work.

This semester I have been working at Jamba twice a week just to have some extra money this semester. Not only have I managed to achieve that goal, but I also have a new job to put on a resume that has taught me delegation and customer service.

Thanks to the variety of dining styles on campus, VT Dining can match you with a dining hall with positions that suit your strengths and fit your schedule. For example, I mentioned that I didn't want to work weekends, so they placed me at Turners. Everyone on the staff is super kind and I've made great friends with the people on my shifts.

If you're looking for some work experience next semester, I can't recommend VT Dining more!

Gabriel Rosado,
Writer

Mia Yost-Kelly,
Writer

Famous People with Engineering Degrees

By Gabriel Rosado

1. Rowan Atkinson - Well known for roles like Mr. Bean and Johnny English, Atkinson has a Bachelors in Electrical Engineering.
2. Ashton Kutcher - Known as Kelso on that 70's Show, Ashton Kutcher's degree is in Biomedical Engineering.
3. Dolph Lungren - Infamous Rocky IV villain, Dolph Lungren has a Bachelors in Chemical Engineering.
4. Bill Nye "The Science Guy" - Everyone's favorite "Science Guy" earned his degree in Mechanical Engineering before becoming famous for his science show.
5. Tom Shultz - Only original remaining member of the band Boston, has both his Bachelors and Masters in Mechanical Engineering.

Insomnia Cookies Favorites

By Mia Yost-Kelly

As an insomniac, I often cannot sleep and sometimes crave something sweet in the early hours after midnight. The treats you can find at the DX Market are good, but they cannot beat a warm baked good from Insomnia Cookies. I am also a firm believer that the walk- typically in the freezing cold- makes the sweet treat even better.

Here are some of my favorites from Insomnia Cookies: Chocolate Chunk Cookie, Triple Chocolate Deluxe Cookie, Chocolate Chunk Brookie, Cookie'wich, Cookie Cake.

If you can't tell, I am kind of basic, but you can never go wrong with a classic chocolate chip cookie! Insomnia Cookies have vegan options and alert you to treats that have tree nuts in them. As we approach the end of the semester, I recommend taking advantage of these baked goods while they are only a minor trek away. I also think you should take the time to celebrate your accomplishments with your friends.

Important PSA: If you are going to go to Insomnia Cookies at night, please do not walk alone at night! Cookies are good, but being safe is great!